Natascha Kuederli is a swiss artist. She was born 30.07.1970 in Zürich, daughter of a German mother and a Swiss father.

She works as a full time artist in the area of photography and film. Küederli develops her own individual concept, based on observations of form, light, space and structure and placing the focus of her analogue photography on narrative processes. Her works tell visually complex stories of people, cities and landscapes.
